Escape to the Yorkshire Dales

Newbiggin Bishopdale

In lower Bishopdale where the glacial moraine and drumlins cause small undulations in the landscape the village of Newbiggin nestles close to the valley floor on the south side of the dale.

The village is peaceful, long and linear with the houses intermittent about a narrow street that is linked to the B6160 by a minor road and small lane but has no through traffic.

Although Newbiggin means 'New Buildings' the term is relative since here are some of the finest examples of 17th century dwellings in the dales.

Reserve your chosen cottage over the telephone, 01969 663559, with Nadine, Geoff or Joanne and pay immediately by debit or credit card or enter your card details on a Booking Form and post.

If you prefer to pay by cheque, please complete and return a Booking Form along with the appropriate amount.

School Cottage Newbiggin

Sleeps 2 Priceband F

Almost central to the village, close to Millbeck Bridge and waterfall is a short row of four terraced houses which includes School Cottage. Built in 1880, it was originally part of the adjacent farmhouse with the ground floor used as a barn store and the first floor as a schoolroom for local children. Its social importance led to it being built with a dash of Victorian splendour typified by decorative masonry, tall chimneys, large windows and high ceilings very appropriate for a school. These basic features still remain and some less durable such as the beautiful sweeping plaster cornices have recently been restored to their former glory.

Entry is to a small hallway leading to a large living area with oak flooring, lounge seating around a wood burning stove with flagged hearth, a dining area and a well fitted kitchen space. A further hallway at the rear of the cottage leads to a patio garden with flower borders and ample space for summer evening dining. An open staircase winds from the living room to a large double bedroom and en-suite bathroom with roll-top bath, shower cabinet, washbasin and toilet. The bedroom has a high ceiling and two large windows which give wonderful space and light to the room along with distant views to the far fells.

A cosy cottage whose space created by open plan and high ornate ceilings belies its size. The meticulous detail of the recent conversion along with period fittings, such as chandeliers and window shutters against a traditional but simple decor make this charming cottage a joy to stay in.

Facilities:

Duvets and pillows are provided with linen and towels included in the rent. Thermostatically controlled electric radiators, 1 basket of logs for wood burning stove and electricity all included.

Colour television, FreeSat, DVD, radio, CD player, MP3 dock, microwave oven, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, automatic washer/dryer, hairdryer, garden furniture.

Pub 400 yards, shop and bus route in Thoralby and West Burton 1+ miles.

Off road parking in front of the cottage (small space) or layby few yards away.

Sorry, not suitable for pets. Strictly non smoking.

West Burton Wensleydale

West Burton, acclaimed by many to be one of the most beautiful villages in England, rests snugly in a deep sheltered valley at the juncture of Walden Dale, Bishopdale and Wensleydale.

Nearby, high fell sides rise steeply to form a spectacular setting to this most picturesque of dales villages, and on climbing can give unrivalled panoramas of the surrounding dales and distant views of the Vale of York and North York Moors.

Walden beck skirts the village and descends over rocky outcrops in a spectacular waterfall with deep pools and minor cascades held in a tree lined gorge to form a natural arena of beauty and relaxation.

The village surrounds an expansive green centred by an ancient market cross and, because of its position away from the main traffic routes, still offers traditional rural tranquillity.

This is particularly true of the green where, here and there, small bench seats prompt social rendezvous and easy conversation.

It is served by a bus route and is ideally placed as a base for exploration of the dales and fells whether on foot or by car.

There is no need, however, to travel for the basics in life as West Burton contains a pub, butchers shop and general store/tearoom.

Masham Wensleydale

In the last reaches of the Pennines the river Ure twists and turns with the undulating landscape. The river is now so full and wide that bridging is difficult and sites of crossings are route centres, around which important local settlements were founded.

One such settlement is the small market town of Masham, a 'Gateway to The Dales'.

An ancient market town since 1393 with one of the largest market places in the north of England, now faced by stylish Georgian buildings which surround the central market cross.

The once famed annual sheep sales, where over 80,000 head would be sold in just three days still continues to this day during September, albeit on a much smaller scale, as does one of the North's largest steam rallies in July.

Now most famous for the Theakston's and Black Sheep breweries, both owned by the Theakston family who first started brewing in 1827 and warmly welcome visitors to watch them ply their crafts and sample the rewards of their labour.

The town is embraced by the river and surrounding slopes and sits picturesquely with the tall spire of Saint Mary's church visible from miles around.

Pretty riverside walks with parkland and playing fields on the doorstep, the nearby stately grounds of Swinton Castle with its delicious restaurant, the fun-park at Lightwater Valley and the not so distant attractions of Ripon, Harrogate and York offer enjoyment and excitement for all.

Avenue Cottage Masham

Sleeps 6 Priceband O

On the northwest fringe of the town, one of the main routes into Masham, the houses line one side of The Avenue overlooking the River Ure near Burn Bridge. The Avenue is tree-lined with mature limes that were planted in 1875 to mark the opening of the railway, which later closed in 1963. Separating The Avenue from the river is open parkland known locally as The Shooting Holme which has adjacent playing fields and tennis courts. With the market place only walking minutes away it is very convenient for all the town has to offer.

The original stone built Avenue Cottage has been renovated and extended in a very modern style, sits detached from its neighbours and is the last house in The Avenue with walks from the doorstep bordering on open countryside. To the side of the cottage is a gated driveway with adequate parking space and low walled garden with views to the parkland and river.

Entry from the driveway is to a hallway which leads to a large open plan kitchen and dining room with tiled floor and French windows opening to the lawn and garden. Through the kitchen is a short hallway which opens to the small orangery with lofted glass roof and large French windows at both sides opening to the garden and rear patio respectively. Between the kitchen and orangery is a washroom with toilet and washbasin.

The front hallway also gives access to a spacious lounge with an oak stairway with glass balustrade rising to the landing. This serves two double bedrooms, one with an ensuite shower-room with washbasin and toilet, two single bedrooms and a fully tiled bathroom with bath, shower cabinet, washbasin and toilet.

To the rear of the cottage is a patio garden which can be reached around the side of the house or through the orangery. A pleasant little suntrap to enjoy those long summer days.

The cottage has been stylishly designed and meticulously converted to the modern world with some traditional features still remaining. A contemporary and progressive cottage that offers a very high standard of accommodation.

Facilities:

Duvets and pillows are provided with linen and towels included in the rent. Gas central heating, and electricity included.

Colour television, DVD, microwave oven, fridge/freezer, wine cooler, dishwasher, automatic washer/dryer, cot and highchair, garden furniture.

Shops, pubs, bus route, restaurant, nearby.

Off road parking for 3 cars to the side of the cottage.

One small well behaved dog welcome.
